The Institute of Purchasing & Supply of Hong Kong (IPSHK) Webinar - HK

Topic: Sustainability Reporting using Global Reporting Initiative (GRI) standards

You are welcome to enrol this Webinar on sustainability reporting using GRI standards where our guest speaker, Ms Verna Lin (Head of Greater China Region, GRI) will share with participants the benefits of referencing GRI in sustainability reporting and the latest update of GRI standards.

Agenda:

1. Introduce GRI and GRI standards in sustainability reporting.
2. Discuss the importance and benefits of referencing GRI in sustainability reporting.
3. Introduce the latest update on GRI standards and those in association with supply chain. Discuss the implications to corporations in using GRI standards in their sustainability reporting.
4. Introduce GRI Academy and online training for sustainability professionals.

About GRI:

GRI (Global Reporting Initiative) is the independent, international organization that helps businesses and other organizations take responsibility for their impacts, by providing them with the global common language to communicate those impacts. GRI provides the world's most widely used standards for sustainability reporting – the GRI Standards.

The GRI Secretariat is headquartered in Amsterdam, the Netherlands. There is a network of seven regional offices to provide support to organizations and stakeholders worldwide.

GRI in the Greater China region is located in Hong Kong, providing support to Mainland China, Hong Kong, Macau, and Taiwan. It collaborates with policy makers, industry associations, civil society groups as well as key actors in capital markets to further regional sustainable development goals.
